

Our retirement savings program is free for employers. It takes less than 15 minutes to register. And you'll receive a $300 tax break every year to participate.¹

With the MarylandSaves Retirement Savings Program, you can comply with the new Maryland law,² attract and retain the talent you need, and your employees can build financial security.

As businesses of all sizes work to recover from the pandemic's financial impact, employees are looking harder at benefits that give them more financial security. In fact, 51% of Americans have increased concern about their retirement due to the COVID-19 pandemic.³ That's where MarylandSaves comes in.

MarylandSaves offers a free and easy retirement savings program created by the State of Maryland for private-sector commercial and non-profit employers like you. It's simple for you and completely voluntary for them. To get started, you need only register your company and provide your employee payroll information.

How does the MarylandSaves Retirement Savings Program work?

- MarylandSaves is funded by employee savings (there are no employer fees and employer contributions are not allowed).
- Employers have no fiduciary responsibility.
- Employee participation is completely voluntary; they can opt-out at any time.
- Employee savings are deposited into their personal WorkLife Account, which is a Roth IRA, administered by private sector financial services firms and overseen by a public board that includes the Maryland State Treasurer and Maryland's Secretary of the Department of Labor.

¹ The $300 annual report filing fee for entities doing business in Maryland is waived for registered employers. Md. Code, Corporations and Associations Art., § 1.203(b)(3)(ii), (13).

² Md. Code., Labor and Employment Art., Title 12 requires Maryland businesses that do not have existing employer-offered savings arrangements to offer their employees access to a retirement savings plan through the MarylandSaves Program.

Which employers should register?

Our goal is to ensure that all Maryland workers can save for their retirement and that all eligible employers in Maryland make a retirement savings program available through an automatic payroll deduction program for their employees. MarylandSaves makes that all possible.

You are required to facilitate the MarylandSaves program if:

- Your business is registered to conduct business in the state of Maryland.
- You have at least one employee that earns Maryland W-2 wages.
- You don't currently offer a retirement savings program to your employees.
- You have been in business for two years.
- You pay your employees through an automated payroll system.

As a bonus for your business, the State will waive the $300 annual filing fee every year your company facilitates participation in the MarylandSaves Retirement Savings Program. That's a win-win.

If you already have a retirement savings program in place for your employees, you will also qualify for the $300 waiver. You can certify your exemption and claim your waiver at MarylandSaves.com.
